Spc. Wilfredo Perez, Jr.

Spc. Wilfredo Perez, Jr., 24, of Norwalk, CT, was born in Brooklyn, NY on December 19, 1978 to Wilfredo Perez, Sr. of Norwalk and Ann Marie Eccles of Queens. He lived in Queens until middle school, was a member of the Sea Cadets and was proud to have marched in the 1991 Desert Storm ticker tape parade in New York City.

Wilfredo moved to Connecticut to live with his father. He attended Nathan Hale Middle School and Norwalk High School and was a member of the R.O.T.C. program and a peer counselor, helping kids work out disputes. He walked numerous years for the MS Society and the American Diabetes Foundation. He volunteered at the 1995 Special Olympics World Games.

Spc. Perez was assigned to Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 1st Battalion, 67th Armor Regiment, 4th Infantry Division, Ft. Hood, Texas. Army Spc. Perez and two other soldiers were killed on July 26, 2003 during a grenade attack in Iraq as they were guarding a children's hospital in Ba'Qubah, just north of Baghdad. He was the third Connecticut serviceman to die in Iraq and the first soldier in Norwalk killed in war since 1969.

Before shipping out to Ft. Hood, Wilfredo Perez, Jr. worked with his father as a remodeling contractor. He also worked for Stew Leonard's and Sign-A-Rama in Norwalk. He loved designing signs freehand and with software. He hoped to use this experience and the GI bill to pursue a career in computer graphic design.

Wilfredo Perez, Jr. was a leader—Strong physically and mentally; handsome and charismatic. You liked him immediately. He was kind-hearted and loved his family—he would do anything for them. He had a beautiful smile and loved to make people laugh. And even if you knew him only briefly, you would never forget him.

Spc. Wilfredo Perez, Jr. was awarded the Army's Commendation Medal for meritorious service while assigned as the Personal Security Detachment for the Brigade Commander, the Purple Heart for wounds received in action, and the Bronze Star for the ultimate sacrifice for his country.

Spc. Wilfredo Perez, Jr.'s final resting place is Cypress Hills Cemetery, Queens, NY. To honor our fallen hero and all veterans—past, present and future—The Wilfredo Perez Jr. Memorial Fund has been established in his name and memory.

Brief Overview of The Wilfredo Perez Jr. Memorial Fund

The Wilfredo Perez Jr. Memorial Fund, Inc. was established shortly after my son lost his life in Ba'qubah, Iraq on July 26, 2003. The Fund's three primary goals are:

1. Award Scholarships: Since 2005, we've awarded $67,500 in college scholarships to graduating ROTC students at Norwalk High and Brien McMahon High Schools. This year we will again be awarding scholarships to college-bound ROTC cadet seniors at Norwalk and McMahon.
2. Support Veterans: In 2016, proceeds will be donated to these veterans' organizations such as: Homes for the Brave and Trees of Honor.
3. Erect a CT Monument: We continue to raise funds for this memorial. This Connecticut Monument will honor all military servicemen and servicewomen with ties to Connecticut who have fallen in the response to 9/11.

Proceeds in 2016, will go to the following: 1) College scholarships at Norwalk High and Brien McMahon, 2) Homes for the Brave, and 3) Connecticut Trees of Honor.

We continue to raise funds for a Connecticut memorial that will be erected honoring CT veterans who lost their lives in Iraq and Afghanistan. Please visit our website for more information: www.perezjrmemorialfund.org.

My family and I thank each and every one of you for your continuous support. Your support not only honors my son; it honors all Connecticut veterans past, present, and future. -- Will
